NWL's agreed Charitable Objectives

NWL has been formed to benefit the community of Neilston which comprises the postcode unit G78 3 ("the Community") with the following objects:

- 1) To manage community land and associated assets for the benefit of the Community and the public in general as an important part of the protection and sustainable development of Scotland's natural environment.
- 2) To preserve, restore and improve the environment in and around the Community and in particular (but without prejudice to that generality) through the provision, maintenance and/or improvement of public open space and other public amenities, and other environmental and townscape regeneration projects.
- 3) To provide within the Community facilities for recreation and other leisure time occupation available to the public at large with a view to improving their conditions of life.
- 4) To promote for the public benefit the preservation (whether wholly or in part) of buildings and other structures or features of historic and/or architectural significance located within the Community.
- 5) To promote security, public safety, the prevention of crime and the reduction of the fear of crime among the residents of the Community.
- 6) To advance education, particularly among the residents of the Community, (i) with particular reference to the field of design and also educational projects directed towards good citizenship; (ii) through promotion of culture and the arts and (iii) in matters relating to the local heritage.
- 7) To provide relief and/or support the needs of people with limited mobility or sensory impairment.
- 8) To promote training, particularly in such skills as may assist the participants in obtaining paid employment.
- 9) To relieve unemployment in such ways as may be thought fit, including assistance to find employment.
- 10) To advance community development and regeneration within the Community through the promotion of trade and industry.
- 11) To promote, operate and/or support similar projects and initiatives for the benefit of the Community.
